

ROSS MITCHELL
Vice President, Strategy, Business Development, Marketing, Communications and Business Operations
MHIRJ

Ross currently leads MHI RJ Aviation Group's teams responsible for strategy development and evaluation, business development, marketing and branding, corporate communications, ESG, facilities and business operations.

Having 25 years of experience in the aviation industry, Ross has held positions over that time in Sales, Marketing, Communications, Asset Management, Contracts and Strategy.

Ross began his career at Bombardier and had experience in Commercial, Regional and Business Aircraft. Ross transferred to MHIRJ in 2020.

Ross holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from McMaster University and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Toronto, as well as executive education accreditation from Ivey School of Business, University of Western Ontario and Schulich Business School, York University.

Ross is located in Toronto and reports directly to the CEO of MHIRJ.