

SAVANTHI, SYTH, CFA

Managing Director, Global Airlines and Advanced Air Mobility

Raymond James

Savanthi Syth joined Raymond James in 2010 as a senior research associate covering the semiconductor sector. She became an analyst in the airlines sector in 2011 and expanded coverage to include advanced air mobility in 2022. Previously, Ms. Syth was an equity analyst on Wells Capital Management's Core Equity team since 2014, where she covered airlines, exploration & production, metals & mining, paper & forest products, and transportation. Ms. Syth graduated summa cum laude from the University of North Dakota with a B.S. degree, double majoring in mathematics and honors. She also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.