

JOHN SULLIVAN
Chairman
CommuteAir

John Sullivan is one of CommuteAir's founders. Serving as Executive Chairman, he has led its rise to new altitudes and now oversees the business in its current, exciting state. John has spent the past 48 years operating regional airlines, developing rich expertise to accompany his personal touch. His C-suite experience spans a variety of airlines including Air North, Clinton Aero, Crown Airways, Brockway Air, and CommuteAir, which were variously contracted to Allegheny, USAir, Piedmont, Continental, and United. Along the way, he did a stint on Wall Street and founded Northeast Airline Services. A graduate of Fairfield University, he is an avid sailor, skier, antique auto collector, and woodworker. John's love for aviation, passion for exploration, and belief in enriching his employees' lives position him to lead CommuteAir into a bold and vibrant future.
